

1st Italian ESU Urology Boot Camp

20th September 2023

Humanitas University, Milan

The Italian Society of Urology (SIU), in collaboration with the European School of Urology (ESU) and the ENTRY project, is delighted to announce the 1st Italian edition of the ESU Urology Boot Camp (UBC). This event aims to provide hands-on training for young Urology residents.

Participants will be selected by SIU from GPY I-II Italian residents in Urology.

The participants will have access to 16 fully equipped training stations with various urological simulators. A trainer will guide them step-by-step in performing simple urological procedures, from theory to practice.
